What is the Global Café?

The Global Café is a great place to collaborate with new and old friends. Make your ideas become a reality by creating your own learning space. At the Global Café, students are free to use fast Wi-fi, projectors, tablet computers, and electronic black boards. If you are interested in studying foreign languages or culture, we will help find a course that suits you.

Global Café Student Committee

The Global Café student committee aims to promote Kagawa University's Students to the world. As well, this group is open to everyone. During the spring semester, the GCSC hosted a successful event named Virtual Global Café. The GCSC invites you to take part in their autumn semester events like Halloween and Christmas, as well as another Virtual Global Café. If you want to become a member of the GCSC or join events, you can find them on Instagram or email to gcsc.kagawa.uni@gmail.com

A Wonderful Spring Semester at the Global Café

During the spring semester, the Global Café had 18 various cultural or language courses. The Global Café had two events in the spring semester. First, we had a presentation and quiz contest about Australia and Aboriginal culture. Then, we had a fun and festive Hawaiian night with some dancing and a lot of laughs.

Student Comments....

The students were very happy with 85% saying they had a great experience, and 96% commented they will join lessons in the autumn semester.

Featured Autumn Semester Courses

TOEIC Speaking and Writing

Global Citizens SDGs

Most are familiar with the TOEIC Listening and Reading Test, but the Global Café offers the chance for students who wish to take the TOEIC Speaking and Writing Test. This course will focus on the skills needed to be more confident with speaking and writing. If you wish to greatly improve your English and gain career skills, this course is what you need. Contact the Global Café at globalcafe@kagawa-u.ac.jp to register for the course.

The Global Citizens course will introduce you to Sustainable Development Goals. Each lesson will focus on a particular Global Issue and its associated SDGs. Then students will discuss, debate and negotiate possible solutions. This active learning course is great for students who wish to expand their knowledge of the world, meet new friends, increase vocabulary, and improve critical thinking skills.

Spotlight on International Week - December 8th to 15th

Special Guest Speakers

During International Week on December 14th from 6 to 7:30pm, students will simulate a Model United Nations Debate. Come and see what skills you can learn by joining a MUN event. If you wish to participate in Model United Nations, please feel free to contact the Global Café GCSC.

We are proud to invite a group of distinguished guests who will present on various topics such as Cross-cultural Translation, International Travel and Education, as well as Foreign Cultures. In addition, students from Kagawa University will speak about their involvement in the 'Program Sanuki' and other Globally-Minded activities.

English Presentation Contest

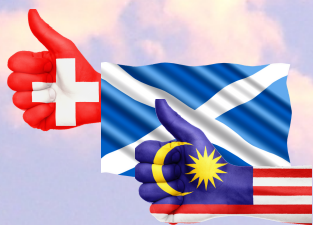

The theme for this year's English Presentation Contest is 'Coexisting in Society'. We are looking for students who wish to make a presentation on how we can create an environment where everyone is equal. This popular event is an excellent chance to motivate yourself and the people around you. Give it a try!

English Haiku Contest

We are happy to announce the Kagawa University English Haiku Contest for 2021. Participants may write their haiku in English on any topic. The winning haiku will be uploaded to the Kagawa University homepage, and also will be published in an online haiku column. Why don't you give it a try?

Other Events and Activities

Countries in Focus

During the Autumn Semester, we will have events involving Switzerland, Scotland, and Malaysia. Please join us and learn about the unique history and culture of these three great countries.

International Lunch

This online event is held every Tuesday from 12:10 to 12:50 throughout the Autumn semester. International Lunch is a fun casual way to listen to other students, ask questions, and to share your ideas.

If you have any questions, please contact the Global Café on LINE.
