

Aventures en Français

Instructor

Sy Khalifa Ababacar

(1st Year Doctoral Student, Graduate School of Engineering)

Class Dates

Thursdays 16:30-17:30

2020 October 22nd - 2021 January 28th

Online Method

ZOOM

Class Summary

- This class is a soft introduction to the French language and culture. If you are interested in speaking French and don't know where to start, this class is for you.
- A summary of how the class will be taught.
  - Introduction of daily goals and plan
  - Pronunciation exercises
  - Vocabulary exercises (using newly learned pronunciation)
  - Practice using role-play
  - Recording of the pronunciation test

Requirements

- Beginner to Intermediate

Attainment Targets

- Objectives:
  - Allow the student to be able to introduce themselves and build an initial vocabulary.
  - Study the different aspects of French pronunciation.
- Specific set of skills focused on in the class:
  - The pronunciation of French.
  - Speaking
  - Listening

Assessment Criteria

- The student's pronunciation will be recorded each week. This recording allows to check their progress and to provide a correction that is pertinent to the Individual.

Capacity

Approximately 8 students